- I am willing to share my experience of training more than 1,000 postgraduate students at the Wiesbaden Academy of Psychotherapy and the experience with Positive Psychotherapy.
 - WAPP has made great developments during the past years. Now, we must consolidate these achievements, deepen our relationship with other modalities and associations, and involve even more WAPP members in our work.
 - A great challenge for the incoming Board will be to keep the Association together, despite all the political and economic challenges worldwide, which affect also our members.
 - We have a lot of young members with great potential. We have to get them in more leadership functions. This is something I would like to focus on.
